

UKRAINIAN COORDINATION

2. - Meeting with [] and [] - May 16, 1957- 4pm

The meeting was held for the purpose of introducing the undersigned and for discussion of the coordination of Ukrainian affairs as it affected SR 7 - Redsox operations. [] suggested that SR 3 send out a memo listing the new aspects of the program and a detailed description of the operational procedure. [] tasked for monthly progress reports to summarize briefly the activities of the contract agents for the projects under SR 7.

Following this meeting, the undersigned met with [] [] and discussed the problems of coordination and the mechanics of reporting forthcoming contacts with the contract agents. She suggested that the UC keep a file of contacts which would be open to persons who are planning to meet one of the contract agents and who wish to brief themselves re the previous developments.

Ann also suggested that the UC inform the Hqs case officers that handle Ukrainian projects of forthcoming changes of personnel and policy so that they can be prepared for questions on the part of the contract agents. She also suggested a better coordination as far as the use of pseudonyms was concerned so that the case officers are not needlessly embarrassed about

Other suggestions included the possibility of the UC informing each of the other offices when a case officer is planning to meet one of the contract agents. The case officer may be able to perform some action for one of the other offices.
